

List of items for the auction at Rutland Polo Club on Sunday 1st July 2018 in aid of the Defence & National Rehabilitation Centre Charity

Rutland Polo Club is extremely grateful for all the very generous donations:

Lot 1 Donated by Glenn Fuller

Painting of 'Greenwich Reach' on the River Thames by the highly praised contemporary artist Keith Snow. Gallery price would be £1,500.

Lot 2 Donated by Jackie Witmond

A beautiful silver gilt beaker made by Barry Witmond. Estimated value £800.

Lot 3 Donated by Stapleford Park, country house hotel

Dinner and overnight accommodation in a State Room with breakfast for two, with use of the spa and a round of golf. Estimated value £750.

Lot 6 Donated by the artist Daniel Crane

A print of his picture of the Blues and Royals on Horse Guards Parade – 'Duties Done'. Gallery value £1,500.

Lot 7 Donated by the Leicestershire sculpture Juliet Cursham

One of her most famous pieces 'A polo player in action' the original was cast in gold for Prince Jeffri of Brunie. Reserve £2,000.

Lot 8 Donated by the David Wilson Foundation

Yacht Charter for one Day to travel around Studland Bay in a Fairline Squadron 58ft 'Buoy oh Buoy' at 25-30 mph for 14 people including 2 crew members. Valid from Sunday 1st July 2018 to 30th April 2019. The Yacht is at Salterns Marina, Poole. Travel within 10 miles of Salterns Marina is included. Fuel surcharge is payable for anything over 10 miles. The Yacht can be hired 7 days per week. Food and drink can be purchased at additional cost. Bookings are subject to availability and weather. To make the necessary arrangements please contact James Sinclair on 07970 358536. Normal value £2,000.

Lot 9 Shooting donated by David Wilson

One day's pheasant/partridge shooting for 4 experienced guns at Lowesby Hall, Lowesby, Leicestershire the private shoot of David Wilson and family. Expected bag 200 +. Dates available 22nd, 23rd or 24th January 2019. All guns must bring with them on the day, proof of their own shooting insurance (BASC or equivalent). For more details please contact Robert Wilson on 07890549089. Value would be £1,000 per gun, so total £4,000.

Lot 10 Magnum of 2009 Vintage champagne donated by Polo Roger. Value £175